Handwriting practice lines consisting of eight rows. Each row has a white top half and a yellow bottom half, separated by a blue line. The first row contains a green dot and a red dot on the white line, with a green arrow pointing down to the yellow area and a red arrow pointing down to the yellow area. The remaining seven rows contain only red dots on the white line, with no arrows. Each row is designed for a child to draw a line from the dot down to the yellow area, following the direction of the arrows in the first row.
